B. SCOBIE 2226
4/11/16

100%

Use of Force Policy

1. If a subject offers nonviolent passive resistance and/or is not responsive to an officer's verbal commands the officer may:
   a. Use baton restraints
   b. Use stun techniques
   c. Use an escort position
   d. Use chemical agent

2. In determining which control techniques to use in accordance with the Action – Response Continuum, the totality of the circumstances shall be considered. Which special circumstance is not listed on the action–response Continuum?
   a. Distance from the subject
   b. Injury, or exhaustion
   c. Time of day
   d. Being on the ground

3. In every instance where an officer uses physical control techniques that are beyond the mere taking control of a subject to take the subject into custody, or in any incident where a subject in injured while resisting their arrest (whether claimed or apparent), or in any incident where physical control techniques are utilized (including incidents where no arrests are made), shall at a minimum complete what two reports?
   a. Crime Report and Action-Response Report
   b. Supplemental Report and Action-Response Report
   c. Action – Response Report and Field Interview Report
   d. Field Interview Report and Action-Response Report

4. The Toledo Police Department limits the use of deadly/lethal options to which of the following?
   a. Self-defense or the defense of others
   b. Threat of death
   c. Immediate serious physical injury
   d. All of the above

5. Officers shall not discharge their firearms, under which of the following?
   a. At a dog
   (b) As a warning
   c. In a building
   d. All of the above

6. All firearm discharges that result in human injury, or death, shall be investigated, both criminally, and administratively.
   (a) True
   b. False

7. Whenever a subject is exposed to chemical agents, who shall be responsible for monitoring the subject for possible medical complications?
   a. EMS
   b. Hospital
   c. Highest ranking supervisor on scene
   (d) The arresting officer

8. Every time physical control techniques are used, officers shall evaluate the subject, and determine if medical aid is required. Medical treatment shall be provided under which of the following circumstances:
   a. A Taser has been deployed on a subject
   b. If the subject is unconscious any time during the contact
   c. If the subject requests medical attention
   (d) All of the above

9. Officer/subject factors may be considered when moving to a higher or lower level or response than recommended, by the Action–Response Continuum. These factors include, but are not limited to which of the following?
   a. Age
   b. Sex
   c. Relative strength
   (d) All of the above

10. When the decision is made to use deadly/lethal options, officers may continue its application until the subject no longer poses an immediate threat of danger to the officer, or to others.
   (a) True
   b. False

JOHN WINGER 2412
4/11/16

100%

Use of Force Policy

1. If a subject offers nonviolent passive resistance and/or is not responsive to an officer's verbal commands the officer may:
   a. Use baton restraints
   b. Use stun techniques
   c. Use an escort position
   d. Use chemical agent

2. In determining which control techniques to use in accordance with the Action – Response Continuum, the totality of the circumstances shall be considered. Which special circumstance is not listed on the action–response Continuum?
   a. Distance from the subject
   b. Injury, or exhaustion
   c. Time of day
   d. Being on the ground

3. In every instance where an officer uses physical control techniques that are beyond the mere taking control of a subject to take the subject into custody, or in any incident where a subject in injured while resisting their arrest (whether claimed or apparent), or in any incident where physical control techniques are utilized (including incidents where no arrests are made), shall at a minimum complete what two reports?
   a. Crime Report and Action-Response Report
   b. Supplemental Report and Action-Response Report
   c. Action – Response Report and Field Interview Report
   d. Field Interview Report and Action-Response Report

4. The Toledo Police Department limits the use of deadly/lethal options to which of the following?
   a. Self-defense or the defense of others
   b. Threat of death
   c. Immediate serious physical injury
   d. All of the above

5. Officers shall not discharge their firearms, under which of the following?
   a. At a dog
   b. As a warning
   c. In a building
   d. All of the above

6. All firearm discharges that result in human injury, or death, shall be investigated, both criminally, and administratively.
   a. True
   b. False

7. Whenever a subject is exposed to chemical agents, who shall be responsible for monitoring the subject for possible medical complications?
   a. EMS
   b. Hospital
   c. Highest ranking supervisor on scene
   d. The arresting officer

8. Every time physical control techniques are used, officers shall evaluate the subject, and determine if medical aid is required. Medical treatment shall be provided under which of the following circumstances:
   a. A Taser has been deployed on a subject
   b. If the subject is unconscious any time during the contact
   c. If the subject requests medical attention
   d. All of the above

9. Officer/subject factors may be considered when moving to a higher or lower level or response than recommended, by the Action–Response Continuum. These factors include, but are not limited to which of the following?
   a. Age
   b. Sex
   c. Relative strength
   d. All of the above

10. When the decision is made to use deadly/lethal options, officers may continue its application until the subject no longer poses an immediate threat of danger to the officer, or to others.
   a. True
   b. False

SANTIBANEZ, RUDY JR 2458.

4-11-16

100%

Use of Force Policy

1. If a subject offers nonviolent passive resistance and/or is not responsive to an officer's verbal commands the officer may:
   a. Use baton restraints
   b. Use stun techniques
   c. Use an escort position
   d. Use chemical agent

2. In determining which control techniques to use in accordance with the Action – Response Continuum, the totality of the circumstances shall be considered. Which special circumstance is not listed on the action–response Continuum?
   a. Distance from the subject
   b. Injury, or exhaustion
   c. Time of day
   d. Being on the ground

3. In every instance where an officer uses physical control techniques that are beyond the mere taking control of a subject to take the subject into custody, or in any incident where a subject in injured while resisting their arrest (whether claimed or apparent), or in any incident where physical control techniques are utilized (including incidents where no arrests are made), shall at a minimum complete what two reports?
   a. Crime Report and Action-Response Report
   b. Supplemental Report and Action-Response Report
   c. Action – Response Report and Field Interview Report
   d. Field Interview Report and Action-Response Report

4. The Toledo Police Department limits the use of deadly/lethal options to which of the following?
   a. Self-defense or the defense of others
   b. Threat of death
   c. Immediate serious physical injury
   d. All of the above

5. Officers shall not discharge their firearms, under which of the following?
   a. At a dog
   b. As a warning
   c. In a building
   d. All of the above

6. All firearm discharges that result in human injury, or death, shall be investigated, both criminally, and administratively.
   a. True
   b. False

7. Whenever a subject is exposed to chemical agents, who shall be responsible for monitoring the subject for possible medical complications?
   a. EMS
   b. Hospital
   c. Highest ranking supervisor on scene
   d. The arresting officer

8. Every time physical control techniques are used, officers shall evaluate the subject, and determine if medical aid is required. Medical treatment shall be provided under which of the following circumstances:
   a. A Taser has been deployed on a subject
   b. If the subject is unconscious any time during the contact
   c. If the subject requests medical attention
   d. All of the above

9. Officer/subject factors may be considered when moving to a higher or lower level or response than recommended, by the Action–Response Continuum. These factors include, but are not limited to which of the following?
   a. Age
   b. Sex
   c. Relative strength
   d. All of the above

10. When the decision is made to use deadly/lethal options, officers may continue its application until the subject no longer poses an immediate threat of danger to the officer, or to others.
   a. True
   b. False

DAN WAGNER 2199
4-13-16

100%

Use of Force Policy

1. If a subject offers nonviolent passive resistance and/or is not responsive to an officer's verbal commands the officer may:
   a. Use baton restraints
   b. Use stun techniques
   c. Use an escort position
   d. Use chemical agent

2. In determining which control techniques to use in accordance with the Action – Response Continuum, the totality of the circumstances shall be considered. Which special circumstance is not listed on the action–response Continuum?
   a. Distance from the subject
   b. Injury, or exhaustion
   c. Time of day
   d. Being on the ground

3. In every instance where an officer uses physical control techniques that are beyond the mere taking control of a subject to take the subject into custody, or in any incident where a subject in injured while resisting their arrest (whether claimed or apparent), or in any incident where physical control techniques are utilized (including incidents where no arrests are made), shall at a minimum complete what two reports?
   a. Crime Report and Action-Response Report
   b. Supplemental Report and Action-Response Report
   c. Action – Response Report and Field Interview Report
   d. Field Interview Report and Action-Response Report

4. The Toledo Police Department limits the use of deadly/lethal options to which of the following?
   a. Self-defense or the defense of others
   b. Threat of death
   c. Immediate serious physical injury
   d. All of the above

5. Officers shall not discharge their firearms, under which of the following?
   a. At a dog
   b. As a warning
   c. In a building
   d. All of the above

6. All firearm discharges that result in human injury, or death, shall be investigated, both criminally, and administratively.
   a. True
   b. False

7. Whenever a subject is exposed to chemical agents, who shall be responsible for monitoring the subject for possible medical complications?
   a. EMS
   b. Hospital
   c. Highest ranking supervisor on scene
   d. The arresting officer

8. Every time physical control techniques are used, officers shall evaluate the subject, and determine if medical aid is required. Medical treatment shall be provided under which of the following circumstances:
   a. A Taser has been deployed on a subject
   b. If the subject is unconscious any time during the contact
   c. If the subject requests medical attention
   d. All of the above

9. Officer/subject factors may be considered when moving to a higher or lower level or response than recommended, by the Action–Response Continuum. These factors include, but are not limited to which of the following?
   a. Age
   b. Sex
   c. Relative strength
   d. All of the above

10. When the decision is made to use deadly/lethal options, officers may continue its application until the subject no longer poses an immediate threat of danger to the officer, or to others.
   a. True
   b. False

4-13-16 GLENDEN TEEMS #2468

100%

Use of Force Policy

1. If a subject offers nonviolent passive resistance and/or is not responsive to an officer's verbal commands the officer may:
   a. Use baton restraints
   b. Use stun techniques
   c. Use an escort position
   d. Use chemical agent

2. In determining which control techniques to use in accordance with the Action – Response Continuum, the totality of the circumstances shall be considered. Which special circumstance is not listed on the action–response Continuum?
   a. Distance from the subject
   b. Injury, or exhaustion
   c. Time of day
   d. Being on the ground

3. In every instance where an officer uses physical control techniques that are beyond the mere taking control of a subject to take the subject into custody, or in any incident where a subject in injured while resisting their arrest (whether claimed or apparent), or in any incident where physical control techniques are utilized (including incidents where no arrests are made), shall at a minimum complete what two reports?
   a. Crime Report and Action-Response Report
   b. Supplemental Report and Action-Response Report
   c. Action – Response Report and Field Interview Report
   d. Field Interview Report and Action-Response Report

4. The Toledo Police Department limits the use of deadly/lethal options to which of the following?
   a. Self-defense or the defense of others
   b. Threat of death
   c. Immediate serious physical injury
   d. All of the above

5. Officers shall not discharge their firearms, under which of the following?
   a. At a dog
   (b) As a warning
   c. In a building
   d. All of the above

6. All firearm discharges that result in human injury, or death, shall be investigated, both criminally, and administratively.
   (a.) True
   b. False

7. Whenever a subject is exposed to chemical agents, who shall be responsible for monitoring the subject for possible medical complications?
   a. EMS
   b. Hospital
   c. Highest ranking supervisor on scene (d.) The arresting officer

8. Every time physical control techniques are used, officers shall evaluate the subject, and determine if medical aid is required. Medical treatment shall be provided under which of the following circumstances:
   a. A Taser has been deployed on a subject
   b. If the subject is unconscious any time during the contact
   c. If the subject requests medical attention
   (d.) All of the above

9. Officer/subject factors may be considered when moving to a higher or lower level or response than recommended, by the Action–Response Continuum. These factors include, but are not limited to which of the following?
   a. Age
   b. Sex
   c. Relative strength
   (d.) All of the above

10. When the decision is made to use deadly/lethal options, officers may continue its application until the subject no longer poses an immediate threat of danger to the officer, or to others.
   (a.) True
   b. False