Help for Victims of Family Violence

Statewide Resources

No one deserves to be abused. If this is happening to you, it is not your fault. Help is available by calling any of the phone numbers listed on this sheet. Remember that you are not alone.

HERE’S HOW TO PROTECT YOURSELF

• If you are in an emergency situation, call 911.
• Talk to a friend, neighbor, clergy person, family member, or doctor – they can be a good source of support and help.
• Make a plan in case you decide to leave. Set aside some cash, important documents, (birth certificates, social security cards, immigration papers, passports, medical insurance cards, any documentation of abuse, etc.), a spare set of keys, and a change of clothes that you can access easily in a crisis situation.
• Contact community resources to find out how they can help. They can assist you if you need a place to stay or need help taking legal action against the person who is abusing you.
• If you are thinking about leaving, do not inform the abuser/batterer.
• Be aware that the abuser/batterer can use technology to monitor your activities (cell phone, text messages, computer, Internet Web sites, GPS, etc.)
• Trust your instincts.

HERE’S HOW TO HELP OTHERS

To help someone who is being abused:

• Plan what you want to say, determine a good time and private place to talk alone.
• Ask questions like “How can I help you? What do you want to do about the situation?” Be supportive and listen without judgment. Give the victim plenty of time to answer.
• Don’t say “Just get out” – it is not a safe piece of advice.
• Let the victim know that you believe that verbal, emotional or physical abuse in a relationship is never acceptable and not the victim’s fault.
• Provide the victim with information about local resources that can help.

To help a child who is being abused:

• Report your suspicions of child abuse to a local children services agency.
• Link the child to a safe adult and contact ChildHelp USA.

To help someone who is a batterer:

• Contact the Ohio Domestic Violence Network for program referral.
